TRAVELLING WITH YOUR FISH

Your frozen fish is packed in waxed cardboard boxes for air transport and will travel with you, on the QCL chartered aircraft. Guest fish boxes will be available for pick up at the airport, upon landing. This packaging is suitable for those that live locally, or guests that have a short connecting flight. Once home, ensure your catch is placed into the freezer.

Waxed cardboard boxes are sufficient, if your catch will be placed in a freezer before day end.

OPTIONAL SERVICES FOR CHARGE

Guests that have a lengthy travel day ahead, aren't due home until the following day or are travelling to a hot climate destination, the following services for charge are suggested:

QCL TRAVEL PACK

Select the QCL Travel Pack and our team will package your fish boxes with additional insulated coolpac thermal liners and gel packs, ensuring your catch is kept well during your longer travel day home.

$35/pack

HOME DELIVERY

Opt to leave your catch with QCL and we'll arrange for it to be shipped on express overnight service the following week.

Additional costs include: Packaging fees, FedEx charges by destination and cross-border customs clearance (if applicable).
